

ICI ANNUAL BENEFIT SILENT AUCTION

Art destination: Los Angeles

LOT #17: PACIFIC STANDARD TIME

Made in L.A.: Ed Rusha, Standard Station, Amarillo, Texas, 1963

A sunny weekend break from New York's winter to get an exclusive introduction to the largest-ever series of exhibitions in the U.S. Discover all you want to know about art in L.A. from 1945 to 1980.

Retail Value: Priceless

Starting Bid: $1,500

Buy it Now: $2,500

Beat the Winter Blues and head to Los Angeles for an in-depth look at the mega art experience that everyone is talking about: Pacific Standard Time: Art in L.A. 1945-1980.

The weekend for 2 begins with checking in at the famous Mondrian Hotel, Hollywood, right at the center of the action. Then head to the Getty Center, where the initiative was first conceived as an unprecedented collaboration of 60 cultural institutions across Southern California.

Follow an itinerary tailored to your interests by ICI, and get VIP introductions by LACMA's Chief Curator Franklin Sirmans, and Orange County Museum of Art's Adjunct Curator Karen Moss.